SOCIETY

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Mrs. Matthew Cullen and Mrs. Frederick U. Leonard will entertain at 500 next Thursday afternoon at the Cullen home, in honor of Miss Della Janet Richards.

The last meeting for the year of the current events section of the Ladies' Literary club will be held this afternoon at the clubhouse in place of the regular literary programme. Miss Emily Jessup will sing a group of children's songs, to be followed by a group of kindergarten songs by a number of the little people. Miss Pearl Rothschild will be the pianist of the afternoon and Asher Cowan will give a group of violin selections. All members are urged to be present on time as business will come before the meeting preceding the programme. At the close of the musical tea will be served.

The German students of the Highschool will give a German play this evening, followed by a dance, for the benefit of the new gymnasium.

Mrs. Von Knoblock will entertain the Bridge club this afternoon.

The Hospital Aid association of St. Mark's hospital will give a reception next Tuesday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock in honor of the dedication of the Nurses' home, a memorial to the late Bishop Abel Leonard and also for Miss Lees, who comes to take the position of head nurse at the hospital. The reception committee includes Bishop F. S. Spalding, Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Miss Beilam and Miss Lees.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. H. Hasbrouck, 217 South Fourth East street. All visiting Southern women are cordially invited to attend.

The Woman's Republican club will be entertained on Monday afternoon by Mrs. T. R. Lewis.

The last meeting for the year of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grant Hampton on East First South street.

Mrs. Frank Swenson will entertain the members of her sewing club this afternoon.

The social event of yesterday afternoon was the bridge tea given by Misses Afton and Jasmine Young, at Red Butte Hollow, in honor of Mrs. Edward C. Parsons of Denver. The rooms were bright with a profusion of spring flowers, white and purple lilacs being used in the parlors and living room, while the dining room was decorated entirely with branches of the white flowering almond. Nine tables were filled with the players and a prize awarded each table. Mrs. William Reid poured coffee and Miss Marge Miller tea; the hostesses were also assisted during the afternoon by Miss Rebecca Morris.

Miss Merce Berkeley entertained at a Kensington yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Della Janet Richards, whose marriage will take place on the 15th. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white carnations. The guests were given clothes pins and tissue paper to dress brides in the contest. The prize was awarded to Miss Dora Daly. Those invited to meet Miss Richards were: Mrs. John C. Daly, Mrs. T. Roy Brown, Mrs. Frederick U. Leonard, Miss Claire Thompson, Miss Mamie Sappington, Misses Dora and Evelyn Daly, Miss Beatrice O'Connor, Miss Louise Lamson, Miss Estelle Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, who made their home in this city for several years and who about a year and a half ago left for Denver, have returned to the city permanently. In the Denver Post for Tuesday, April 30, a picture of Mrs. Reed is printed and an article regarding her departure from Denver. She will be greatly missed in social and club circles in Denver, but will be welcomed home by a host of friends. For the present, Mr. and Mrs. Reed are at home to their friends, at 443 East First South street.

Mrs. W. S. Hudson and Mrs. E. F. Hanna entertained at a 500 affair yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Hudson on Capitol hill. Six tables were filled with players, and at the close of the afternoon the honors were awarded to Mrs. E. E. Wilson and Mrs. James Dinwiddie. Mrs. R. C. Pierson assisted during the afternoon. Purple and white lilacs and apple blossoms were used for the decorations throughout the house.

Captain and Mrs. John N. Straat, who have been guests of the Knutsford, left last night for Southern California, where it is hoped Mrs. Straat will regain her former health and be able to sail for the Philippines when the twenty-ninth leaves in August.

Mrs. J. W. Currie entertained the members of the 500 club at her home on Tuesday afternoon. The club will be entertained at their next meeting by Mrs. John Kempf.

The Young People's Bible class of the First Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. Lee, will give a reception in the church parlors this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dorn and Miss Elizabeth McIntyre will leave on Saturday for Los Angeles, where they will spend a month.

There will be a dance at Saltair this evening, when the Iowa Shriners will participate. The Shriners are en route to Los Angeles.

The Twentieth Century Bridge club were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. D. Donohue.

The last dance of the season at the Ninth Ward amusement hall will be given tonight.
